

6. Consumer Statements

Consumer Statements are explanations of up to 100 words you can attach to your credit file to provide more information on an item you may disagree with or would like to provide details on. Consumer statements are voluntary and have no impact on your credit score. You currently do not have any Consumer Statements in your file.